

Vocational preparatory instruction language + integration

The vocational preparatory instruction language + integration is a course from Zurich for young people who do not have German as their native language, who are new in Switzerland. Here they will learn German intensively, learn to arrange every day matters independently and prepare themselves for a vocational apprenticeship or the world of work.

Conditions of participation

- 15 – 21 years old.
- Resident of Zurich.

Content

- Speak, understand, write German.
- Information about life and work in Switzerland.
- Training in skills for working life.
- General education
- Support in further training, apprenticeship placements, work.

Organisation

The VPI language + integration begins in August and lasts for a year. Entrance during the school year is possible in certain circumstances.

A preparatory course with a reduced syllabus starts in February.

Holidays

The school holidays are based around the holiday schedule of the adult education centre in Zurich.

Certificate

You will receive a certificate in February and July. Additionally you can acquire an internationally recognised language diploma according to your level of language.

Costs

The registration fee is Fr. 100 and must be paid before the start of the course. This will not be reimbursed. The school and material costs come to a maximum of Fr. 2,400. You can apply for a reduction of school fees.

Registration

Send us your completed registration form and we will contact you.

Zurich, 2017